

A Community Update

Dear readers,

In keeping with CDC recommendations to limit the spread of COVID-19, our offices in Watertown are currently closed and all Charlesbridge staff is working remotely. We realize these are challenging and uncertain times for our readers, our partners, and the wider publishing community.

While we cannot give permission for videos to be posted on YouTube, Facebook, Instagram, or any other public platform, if you are a teacher, librarian, or bookseller, we would love to have you record a read-aloud for any of our books and post it on a closed platform (ex. A Zoom meeting, a password-protected classroom site).

Please follow the guidelines below:

1. At the beginning of your video, please state the author's name, the illustrator's name, and the fact that you are reading "with permission from Charlesbridge Publishing."
2. Please delete your video by June 30, 2020.
3. These readings are allowed for remote educational programming only. This process does not grant permission for any commercial use.
4. Finally, please fill out this form just to let us know about your read-aloud.

For all other inquiries, please do reach out to our team at the following addresses:

Accounting: accountsreceivable@charlesbridge.com

Editorial and Design: tradeeditorial@charlesbridge.com

Marketing and Publicity: trademarketing@charlesbridge.com

Sales: orders@charlesbridge.com

We appreciate your continued support of our titles, our authors and illustrators, and our mission. Times like this remind us how interconnected we are. Please stay well.
